

THE STORY OF EWHURST CHURCH

An illustrated talk by Janet Balchin

Friday 24 January 2025

In the Wilson Room, next to Ewhurst Church

7.00pm for 7.30pm

*Wine and refreshments will be available from 7.00pm
(Donations appreciated) The Talk will be about 45mins*

Local historian Janet Balchin will be telling the story of Ewhurst church from its Norman foundation, through the turbulent years of the Reformation, the Civil War and the Restoration, to the stability of the Georgian period. In the 19th century, the church faced further challenges when the tower collapsed with the subsequent re-building, and the 20th century when the church became central to the local community's response to two world wars.
