BIENVENIDO!

After repairs to the chancel roof, our church still remains on the English Heritage 'At Risk' register. The roof of the South transept in particular needs an urgent overhaul costing an estimated £400,000, so we still have a long way to go.

FSPSP trustees would like to thank everyone who continue to support our charity. We hope that you will enjoy your Taste of Spain while supporting FSPSP in the process.

MUCHAS GRACIAS

Putting on an event like this is no mean feat. We would like to thank everyone who has helped out. In particular, our thanks go to Andy Mead for organising the evening and to Taurus wines for providing the wines. We also pass on special thanks to Johnny Robbins for his cantando, Bob Foley for the sound system and to all those who helped set up the hall, cooked and served the food and organised the bar.

Our thanks also go to those who collated and printed this programme, and those who persuaded our generous sponsors to support this event.

Finally a huge thank you to our business sponsors whose details appear throughout in this programme. They are the cornerstone of this evening's fundraising, so please support these local businesses.

Wines to Buy at the Bar

There are two wines available ...

Bienbibido Pulpo Albarino at £10 per bottle

This wine is from a little-known area in Rioja – Valles de Sadacia. Valles de Sadacia is famed for its dry white wines. Expect apple, citrus and stone-fruit flavours.

Finca Carelio Tempranillo at £10 per bottle

This is a blend of wine from Castilla and Ribera del Duero – where wines are usually double the price. Rich. Ripe. Smooth. And full of jammy dark-fruit flavour. It's deliciously easy drinking, with elegant tannins and spice.

San Miguel Especial Lager also available at £1.30 per bottle

Welcome Bubbly:

Francesc Ricart Brut Cava

This is fresh, balanced and fruity. There's aromas of flowers and honey mingling with white peach and gentle bready notes. Rich and elegant with opulent flavours of white peach, citrus with a refreshing finish.
